Depart:

8:00 AM from Hoi An

1:30 PM from Hoi An

Finish:

12:00 PM at Hoi An

5:30 PM at Hoi An

These three traditional craft villages in Hoi An are worth visiting if you get the chance. There are still villages like that in the middle of the never-ending construction of contemporary streets; these are places where ordinary people lead lovely lives and support the preservation and advancement of the traditional values of their country and people ethnicity.

About 8:00 AM or 1:30 PM: Tour guide will pick you up at your hotel and start the day with Thanh Ha pottery village, where you can visit temples, museums with exhibitions, learn about history, and experience pottery-making activities.

Continue the journey, we will visit Kim Bong Carpentry Village. This is an ideal place to transport materials by waterway because it is situated on the right bank of the lower Thu Bon River and across from the ancient town of Hoi An. When entering the carpentry village, it is not difficult to hear the sound of chisels and cuts. The villagers have most likely grown accustomed to hearing these noises. While at Kim Bong Craft Village, you can visit carpentry workshops and see directly how artisans work to create intricately carved products.

At Kim Bong Carpentry Village, you will have a chance to freely express your ideas at the most affordable price by ordering products online or by selecting them from the selection. When visiting, you can also take a bicycle tour of the carpentry village, discover what it takes to work on a farm, or take in the picture-perfect lifestyle of the villagers.

At Tra Que Vegetable Village, you will get to experience what it's like to be a real farmer. It has been in place for more than 300 years. This serene area is roughly 3 kilometers northeast of Hoi An ancient town with the Tra Que lagoon and De Vong River encircling it. A traditional vegetable village with rich soil and fresh air is a perfect example of a place where the natural environment is ideal for agricultural production.

You will get the chance to live like a real farmer by visiting this traditional vegetable village and taking part in farm tasks like tilling, watering, fertilizing, and picking vegetables.

Have lunch at the local restaurant.
